Seven local Lions joined a group of some 40 Lions Monday on their way via Calgary and Great Falls to Atlantic City for the international convention of Lions International.

Lions from all over the world will elect a candidate for third vice-president of Lions International. Virgil P. Moshansky, a past international director and a native of Vegreville, Alberta is a candidate for this high office and, when selected, will be on his way to becoming president of the largest service organization in the world with one million members throughout every nation in the free world.

Hospital offices open

The administration offices of the new Sturgeon General Hospital, St. Albert, will open for business on July 5.

Machinery and equipment will be moved in at that time and the official opening will be held on Aug. 5. The hospital expects its first patients on Aug. 15.

Hospital tours for interested citizens and groups will be available any evening between July 13 and 31. Anyone wishing to tour the facilities is asked to contact Richard Fowler at 599-3467.

Arena paving delayed

The Town of St. Albert is experiencing delays in having its application for a $36,000 recreational facility grant approved by the department of youth.

Councillor John de Bruijn told a special meeting of council Monday that the application for the grant which is to be used mainly to provide a paved floor for the new arena, is being held up because the department of youth requires "firm figures not estimates" for the job.

This would necessitate the town's engaging a structural engineer to design a concrete floor and the design cost would have to be included in the over-all firm price of installing the floor. Council voted unanimously in favor of commissioning a structural engineer to design the floor.

Local Knismen's plans to install the artificial ice plant are also dependent on the facility grant being approved as they would prefer not to install the plant until such time as the matter of the concrete floor is settled.

Should the grant for the paved floor not be approved this year, it could mean that artificial ice would not be installed for some time yet.

Knismen report an approximate $10,000 bank balance to be used toward the cost of the artificial ice plant, said Councillor de Bruijn. This includes proceeds from this year's rodeo. Original estimates for a $40,000 ice plant have been modified to approximately $30,000 for a smaller plant. With the use of a larger condenser, it will still be possible to make ice for year-round skating.

service or project and carries it out for at least four months. She must display her knowledge of another country and present her results. Assignments to prove her reliability, cheerfulness and ability to work with and under others are given and letters of recommendation must be obtained.

In addition to her work in guiding, Denise has been active in sports, choir, student council and crafts.

Mrs. B. O'Kell and Mrs. J. Byrne presented Denise with a corsage and gift on behalf of the Catholic Women's League of St. Albert.

R. S. Fowler named to new U. board

R. S. "Dick" Fowler, former mayor of St. Albert, has been chosen as a member of the interim governing authority for Athabasca University — the province's fourth university to be built near St. Albert.

Appointment of the interim board members was announced Friday, by Education Minister Robert Clark.

The Hon. Carlton W. Clement, Justice of the Supreme Court of Alberta, will act as board chairman.

Other board members are: Mrs. Marilyn Pilkington Shaw, former president of the University of Alberta Students' Union; Dr. T. C. Byrne, deputy minister of education; Ronald Clarke, an Edmonton clergyman; and Dr. S. Gordon Geldart, Edmonton dentist and lecturer in the Faculty of Dentistry, University of Alberta.

The president of the university will also serve on the interim authority.

"It may well be several months before a president is selected," said Mr. Clark. "Some people have expressed an interest and this is the responsibility of the authority now."

Mr. Fowler, who was mayor of St. Albert between July, 1965 and October, 1966, is regional sales manager for Dunham, Bush of Canada Limited. In his capacity as mayor, he was involved in the drafting of briefs and submissions to various government departments regarding the advantages of locating a university in this area.

"I am particularly pleased that someone from St. Albert was chosen to serve on the board and of course, I feel very happy that I was appointed," Mr. Fowler said.

"The first meeting of the interim authority is scheduled for Thursday morning at Government House and I won't know a great deal about it before then."

In announcing appointments to the board, Mr. Clark stated that the interim governing authority will gradually be phased out as the university develops. When a board of governors is established on completion of the university, more people from the northern part of the province will be involved.

Exchange student group arrives

The St. Albert student exchange will begin July 1, with the arrival of the 24 Quebec students in St. Albert at approximately 2 p.m. at Grandin Shoppers Park.

There are also 24 St. Albert students involved in the exchange.

cine, Jean Marc Belanger, Gaetan Turcotte, Robert Brousseau.

On July 2 and 3 the entire group will travel to Jasper. On the trip the students will visit Miette Hot Springs, ride on the sky train, see Athabasca Falls and other points of interest.

Some of the other activities will include the Town of St. Albert civic banquet, a day at the lake arranged by the Lions Breakfast Club and a barbecue for the group on the evening of July 6, hosted by the Lions Club.

The group will leave for Quebec on July 7 and will be returning on July 18.

Mill rate set

St. Albert's mill rate was set at 72.5 mills Monday at a special meeting of council. This is a decrease of 7 1/2 mills from the 1969 rate.

At the same meeting, business tax rate in St. Albert was set at 32.5 mills, unchanged from last year.

Mayor Gibson said Tuesday that on the average home assessment in St. Albert of $7,000, the decrease in taxes amounts to approximately $55.

Denise Maurice is gold cord guide

Miss Denise Maurice of 20 Sonora Drive was presented with her gold cord — the highest award in guiding — at a special ceremony in the Roman Catholic Parish hall, Thursday evening, Denise, 15, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Maurice. She has just completed grade 9 at St. Albert High School.

District Commissioner Pauline Vaugoleis, in making the presentation, pointed out that gold cords are normally presented by the lieutenant-governor of the province every three years but that a special presentation had been arranged for Denise because she and her family will be leaving St. Albert this week to reside in Manitoba.

Denise began her career in guiding in St. Boniface, Manitoba and joined the Third St. Albert Guides on her arrival in St. Albert two years ago. Her 12-year-old sister, Diane, is also a guide and she received her first class badge Thursday evening.

Miss Vaugoleis noted that Denise is the first member of the third company to be awarded a gold cord and that there are only three holders of the cord amongst St. Albert guides. A number of guide leaders in the town also have their gold cords, she said.

"Lieutenant-Governor J. Grant MacEwan has said that he considers gold-cord guides amongst the finest young ladies in all of Alberta," said Miss Vaugoleis.

To qualify for the gold cord, a girl must be at least 14 years of age and must complete all the requirements by her 16th birthday. She must be a first class guide, hold the little house and woodlore emblems have her camp, citizen and first aid badges and a craft badge. The girl chooses a

the Gazette REFLECTS

Council's action in taking full advantage of new provincial tax structures, and lowering the 1970 mill rate to 72.5 mills from last year's 80 mills, will well suit St. Albert taxpayers. Many have felt for some years that taxes here were unduly high when compared with similar residences in Edmonton. It now appears clear that this gap is closing and that city taxes must begin rising more rapidly than in St. Albert. When differences in land costs are also taken into consideration, St. Albert homeowners have further cause for satisfaction.

The 1970's are shaping up as years when more and more people are giving thought to what values should be emphasized for building a good life. It has developed that the long-applauded "high standard of living" has not produced the quality of living expected of it.

In this connection the extent and style of St. Albert's growth are questions in the minds of both residents and councillors. Careful evaluations will be required as this growth occurs, so that the town may achieve the best balance between a sound tax base and a community environment conducive to healthy, low-tension living.

Council has established a policy for controlled density under which 80 per cent of residential areas are for single family dwellings, three per cent for apartments and 17 per cent for condominiums and row housing. No more than 22 people per acre are allowed in designated areas. Apartment areas have a density limit of 25 units per acre, and condominiums 12 units per acre.

It will become necessary to make decisions on how big the town should become in area, and where the ultimate boundary lines will be drawn. No erosion of the existing green belt between Edmonton and St. Albert should be tolerated by either the Town of St. Albert or the Municipal District of Sturgeon. Neither can the matter of low-cost housing be ignored, if our young people are to be able to marry and establish homes here. In this matter the town's responsibility should end with making allowance for land area, and it is recognized that low-cost housing will require subsidization by the senior governments right across Canada.

And the spectre of amalgamation enters the picture as well. St. Albert taxpayers will assuredly have less control of their own affairs if the town becomes part of Edmonton.

One thing is certain. There are lots of pipers to be paid by taxpayers on three levels of government. Will we not be better off in St. Albert if we choose our own pipers and call our own tunes?

The Women's Institute closed their meetings for the summer months with a weiner roast at the home of Mrs. J. Rouault.

Holiday plans were discussed and the weiner roast was enjoyed by all. A safe and happy summer to you all.

Garth Leasic of 12 Sunset Blvd. has won a tent trailer. The Balwin Red Sox draw was made Thursday night following the game played at 125 Ave. and 97 St. diamond.

If warm summer days bring on the urge to clean out the attic, the basement or the garage -- don't be tempted to throw out all that "gorgeous junk."

St. Matthews Anglican Church Women's group will be holding their annual rummage sale in September at the Jasper Place Legion and would appreciate receiving saleable items during the summer months.

All donations may be left at 13 Gresham Boulevard.

Most people in St. Albert are aware that Dr. Bill Cuts is an enthusiastic Lion -- but going all the way to Edinburgh for a meeting is a bit much, even for him!

Actually "Doc" and Mrs. Cuts, along with Mrs. Cuts' mother, Mrs. John W. Barnett, were going to make a trip overseas anyway -- and the Lions Club meeting just happened to fit into the schedule. "Doc" reports that he'll keep an eye open for Lions meetings in the various countries they'll be visiting.

They left Tuesday night on a Hiwinders and Scottish Society charter flight returning to St. Albert at the end of July. In his absence, Receiving congratulations from Lions Breakfast Club President, Marcel Demers (right) is Dr. Bill Cuts, secretary-treasurer of the club. Both Dr. Cuts and Bulletin Editor John Huberdeau were presented with appreciation award pins for their outstanding contribution to the club during the past year.

Dr. Cuts' patients will be looked after by Drs. Fairfield and Gramlich.

The Cuts plan an automobile tour through England and Doc says he's not afraid of driving on the wrong side of the road. "I just have a big sign -- overseas driver -- on my car and everybody stays out of my way."

will be called Athabasca University.

In announcing the name, Education Minister Robert Clark stated that it had been chosen for its historical-geographical significance. Before becoming a province, Alberta was part of the Territory of Athabasca.

Mr. Clark stated that serious consideration had been given to the many suggestions received, in particular "Sturgeon University" and the "University of St. Albert" as well as a number of names of well-known persons. He added that the final choice of Athabasca was made because the university is designed to serve the northern part of Alberta and the Athabasca River is one of the major waterways in the northern part of the province.

An interim board of governors under the chairmanship of The Hon. Carlton W. Clement, Justice of the Supreme Court of Alberta has been appointed. President of the new university, who will also serve on the interim authority, will be announced at a later date.

It is hoped that construction on the university will begin next year with facilities for 5,000 students to be completed by 1973.

No construction tenders have been initiated as yet, Mr. Clark said. He repeated an earlier assurance that, in so far as is possible, Alberta-based industry will have priority in the construction and equipping of the new university.

The prime objective of the new university will be to provide excellence of instruction in undergraduate fields of arts, science and education. The development of a program of graduate studies is not expected to take place in the immediate future.

We think the university will be very unique. It will be the only university in western Canada focusing all attention on the field of undergraduate work," said Mr. Clark. "I am very excited about the possibility of this not being just another university but a unique institution."

Asked if the university would not suffer from the lack of a post-graduate group, he replied that similar institutions in the United States had proved extremely successful.

The university is expected to explore and institute new procedures in curriculum organization and instruction. In this connection, Mr. Clark commented that a 12-month academic year, the use of small seminar groups, use of the latest advances in communication media were areas which would be studied by the interim authority.

Lions Elect Glen Ward

The new president of St. Albert Lions Club has come up through the ranks to top post, arriving there somewhat earlier than he had expected. Glen Ward was looking forward to his year as first vice-president under Pat Patterson, when Pat was transferred to Grande Prairie shortly after his election. Glen allowed his name to stand and was elected president for a one year term, effective July 1st.

Glen joined the Lions Club in 1964, the year he moved to St. Albert. He served as program chairman that year, moving up to director, third, second and first vice-president. Asked if he had some ideas for the coming year, Glen said, "Bingo!" "The club needs money and I think one or two big cash bingos in the arena could be the answer." He went on to say that upkeep of Lions Park is costing the Lions thousands of dollars yearly. Unfortunately this cost is boosted considerably by repeated and unrelenting vandalism, said Mr. Ward. Picnics are burned. We are presently erecting six toilets and material is destroyed before it can be used. As they go up, boards are torn off. Every year the kitchen needs rebuilding which gets downright discouraging for the Lions volunteers who do much of the labor in their leisure time. "There just doesn't seem to be any answer to this problem," said Mr. Ward.

Mr. Ward, a salesman with Commercial Refrigeration Ltd., is married with three daughters and the family lives at 133 Grosvenor Blvd.

JOHN BAKKER

Mr. John Bakker, a professor in engineering at the University of Alberta, moved to St. Albert in 1960 and was first elected to council in 1964. He was re-elected in 1967, placing near the top of the polls in both elections. He has served as public works chairman during his six years in office.

In this series of three articles Councillor Bakker presents his assessment of certain aspects of the town's situation and his views on certain policies the town should be taking.

Space will be made available to other councillors if they wish to use it at any time to discuss town affairs.

The Gazette believes such articles will assist readers (and particularly those who have come recently) to inform themselves on town matters.

"BOB, I WONDER, IF [ATHABASCA] WAS SUCH A WISE CHOICE"

St. Albert's finances

First of a series of articles specially written for the Gazette by Councillor J. J. Bakker

The Mill Rate Reduction

The mill rate reduction this year from 80 to 72.5 must suggest to many that St. Albert has finally solved its financial problems. Strange as it may seem however the municipal portion of the mill rate has been constant since 1967. This year's reduction is due to the new regulations regarding education tax and the elimination of the hospital tax (four mills on equalized assessment.)

It is worthwhile to look at the past trends of the two mill rates, school and municipal, in both St. Albert and Edmonton. The first noticeable fact is that the mill rates of Edmonton and St. Albert for school purposes have been very close. Only in the last two years was St. Albert a few mills higher than Edmonton.

However when we look at the municipal mill rate we can notice wide variations. During the New Town era the Edmonton mill rate was higher. Considering that Edmonton channels the profits from its utilities into general revenue so as to lower its mill rate, the mill rate in St. Albert must have been unrealistically low up to 1963. By converting the utility profits into mills we can arrive at a municipal expenditure rate for Edmonton, so that we can compare the expenditures of the two communities. Edmonton's policy of using utility profits to reduce property taxes has been beneficial to Edmonton. However expansions to the utility systems now require borrowing at a high interest rate since no reserves are being provided for. The city will have to make a choice soon as to whether it will increase taxes considerably (particularly for debt repayment) or to increase utility charges.

St. Albert could suffer in the latter case, as we obtain our water from Edmonton on which they already make a 35% surcharge! The surrounding municipalities will have to get together and insist that rate increases which affect other municipalities be approved by the public utilities board.

Now if we look at the graph showing the St. Albert municipal mill rate, we can see that the money needed to repay debts in 1959 and 1960 exceeded the municipal levy actually made. In other words borrowed (capital) money was used to pay for day to day expenses. When the New Town was converted back to Town status, a deficit had to be cleared up by special borrowing. This "past indebtedness" costs us about 2 1/2 mills now per year.

Future mill rate?

What will happen in the future? Obviously the predictions of the Underwood McLellan report (which was the basis of an opinion vote regarding amalgamation) are not valid. The danger in municipal financing is to try to hold a mill rate down and borrowing too much money. Sooner or later (and usually sooner) the facts of life will catch up with the municipality. Not too great a portion of the mill rate should be spent on debt repayment. The Town of St. Albert is presently limiting its capital expenditures so that the number of mills devoted to debt repayment will be reduced to 14 by 1975. It will still be possible to borrow money each year for some essential projects but any major expenditures (such as building a new covered swimming pool) will have to wait until 1974. In 1974 several debentures will have been paid up and borrowing will be possible up to approximately a half million dollars without affecting the mill rate adversely. We will need men on council who will be able to say NO to unnecessary expenditures.

If the town wants to limit its capital expenditures through borrowing then of course it will have to finance new essential facilities in other ways. New development has to provide for its own facilities such as roads, sewers, water mains, sidewalks and the like.

As is well known the cost of living is going up. Somehow the town will have to absorb increased costs either by increasing taxes or by improving efficiency. When the town is already operating with a minimum of staff the chances to improve efficiency become less unless there is growth. If the town has growth the same machinery and staff can serve more people, however the total cost can be kept about the same. However this rule does not apply to all departments.

Costs trend in St. Albert

If we look at the per capita costs and the trends of these costs over the past number of years then we can see that public works, sanitation and waste removal improved its efficiency and kept the per capita cost about constant at $15. General government also remains about constant at $16 per capita.

However costs related to protection to persons and property (police and fire) are rising. In the last year the town has increased the number of full time firemen, so that the firehall is manned around the clock seven days per week. It should be realized that the cost to the town can only be kept at this level because of the tremendous contribution that the volunteer fire brigade is making. The police establishment has also been increased. As the town grows the costs of protection should go up too, primarily because of cost of living and increase in size.

Another category that increases costs is "recreation and community services." The high cost of 1967 was due to Centennial year. The increase in costs for 1970 are due to the arena. We do not yet have experience with the operation of an arena and the real cost experience will come in 1971. The 1970 estimates allowed for about one mill for about two months of operation. It is to be hoped that this estimate is high. It will remain essential that volunteer effort be encouraged in recreation. The service clubs are making a valuable contribution in this regards.

Residential assessment base

In 1971 we can expect an increase in assessment due to new buildings. Some of the increased revenue from this new assessment will have to be used for expanding services to new areas while the remainder can be used to absorb an increase in the cost of living. With the programmed reduction of the school requisition over the next two years, an overall mill rate of 70 is a distinct possibility in 1972. However if growth is discouraged (as one councillor would like to do) then increased costs will have to be met by increased taxes (as was the case from 1965 to 1967).

St. Albert has a residential base for its assessment. Due to the Foundation Plan in the Province of Alberta a residential base is becoming less of a disadvantage financially (a residential community is a better place to live in as far as I am concerned). However commercial and industrial assessment would help the tax base. We cannot expect a major department store in St. Albert until the population is about 30,000. Industry will not locate in St. Albert until we have well serviced land, accessible to ring roads and railways. In order to broaden our base it will be necessary to have growth first. For that reason our development policies are very important. In the next article these policies will be discussed in more detail.

To entertain at Fete au Village

The Fete au Village entertainment committee is proud to announce that the charming Linda Lopushinsky will appear on the Sunday evening performance in the arena.

Linda is well known as a little girl with a golden voice who charmed thousands of people on television and on numerous stages. For the past few years she appeared on the Klondike stage in Edmonton during Klondike Days.

Plan to attend this Sunday evening show to hear her and the many others.

Morinville Mayor Art Stapleton shows his guests how it's done. Mayor Stapleton triumphed over the mayors of St. Albert, Westlock, Legal, Barrhead and Fort Saskatchewan to win the Mayor's shoot-out during Morinville Frontier Daze last weekend. Runner-up was Mayor Ray Gibbon of St. Albert who's been a consistent winner in recent western-type contests around the country.

Cool morning breezes only served to increase appetites as crowds of people turned out for the free breakfast at Morinville's Frontier Daze, Saturday. The breakfast kicked off two days of fun and activity which kept local people and visitors well entertained, despite the cool weather.

Braves Take Morinville Money

The Braves played fine baseball in the annual eight team Morinville Daze baseball tournament and came up with first place money of $125, with a final 12-10 win over runner-up Legal.

Bob Cardinal was on the mound for the victory which was a see-saw battle all the way.

Alexander earlier came up with an opening game win over Fawcett 7 - 6 and blasted Morinville 13 - 0 to enter the final.

Legal had an opening game win over St. Albert Willowbrook Saints 2 - 1 in eight innings of play, which was a real crowd pleaser. Legal went into the seventh and last inning with a 1-0 lead only to see the Saints score a run with one out and the bases loaded. Saints failed to score as Larry Mitchell popped up to the pitcher and Chester Cunningham grounded out to the Legal short-stop who threw to second for the force out on a close play. Legal picked up a run in the eighth and St. Albert failed to score.

In earlier games Morinville defeated Bon Accord 3-2 and Redwater shut out Vimy 6-0.

Former residents of St. Albert, Kathleen and Herbert Bell of Edmonton, came back to enjoy the St. Albert Legion Chuckwagon dinner with old friends. The Bell's house used to be on the property where the Esso Station on Highway No. 2 is now located.

Sid Sparks of Morinville, in chef's regalia and Fred Austin of the Legion's entertainment committee, "do their thing" at the recent chuckwagon dinner.

Mrs. Jean Dobbie and Mrs. Eileen Austin inspect the chuckwagon — complete with appropriate signs — at the St. Albert Legion's chuckwagon dinner held as part of rodeo festivities.

Minor ball

The pennant winning Angels in the Lions Division of the Little Canadian League continued on the playoff trail with a 9-7 win over the Pirates to go into the finals against the White Sox. Mike Mitchell was on the mound for the Angels and Stephen Lister was the loser for the Pirates.

Chris Krupa was the winning pitcher as the Angels defeated the White Sox 15-6 to take a one game lead in the best of three final for the Lions Division. Murray Riddell had a home run for the winners and Norm Tinker was the loser.

The White Sox earlier got into the finals with a 9-5 win over the Senators with Norm Tinker picking up the win. Peter Upright was the loser.

In the Knights of Columbus Division the Dodgers and the Reds posted semi-final wins to enter the finals. Dodgers defeated the Giants and the Reds with Marc Tworek on the mound eliminated the Yanks 15-12. The Reds opened the finals with a close 10-9 win over the Dodgers with Mike Byl picking up the win.

In the Mites division the Eskimos continued to play winning ball with a 33-3 win over the Mustangs to eliminate them from further play. Terry Bischler picked up the win.

In the other semi-final games Totems scored an easy 25-6 win over the Red Sox with Bernie Joyal the winner. Eskimos had no trouble with the Totems to take a one game lead in the finals with a convincing 15-5 win. Once again Terry Bischler got the win and also hit a home run.

Final games in all leagues will be played as soon as weather permits.

Mens Fastball

Stony Plain defeated St. Albert Drive-In 8 - 7 to take over sole possession of first place in the Sturgeon Fastball League. St. Albert Drive-In, Stony Plain and Spruce Grove were all tied for first before the game. Jim Miller was the winning pitcher and Dick Bird the loser.

new position in the district office. Mr. Miller will be assistant to the superintendent, working in the areas of curriculum research, report preparation and enrollment predictions.

Mr. Miller comments that the latter function -- predicting enrollments -- will be one of the most important and difficult parts of his new position. Accurate forecasting of student populations which will result from St. Albert's growth is a necessity if school building needs are to be met.

Mr. Miller has been principal of Sir George Simpson Junior High for the past five years. He was vice-principal for three years.

Morinville names Pete Gibeault Citizen of Year

Peter Gibeault, 52, of Morinville, known far and wide as Imperial Pete was named 1970 Citizen of the Year at the closing presentation of Frontier Daze celebrations on Sunday, and received the Lion's Citizen of the Year trophy from Frontier Daze president Octave Himschoot.

Born in Morinville 52 years ago, the grandson of a pioneer family of this district, Pete attended the Frontenac and Morinville schools. As a very young man, after the death of his father, Hermas Gibeault, he continued to farm with his mother and the help of his younger brothers east of Seemingly dry earth conceals more fresh water than there is in all the Nation's rivers, ponds, reservoirs, and lakes, including the Great Lakes, the National Geographic Society says.

Morinville and worked at the coal mines in Cardiff.

He married Miss Nora Devolder of Riviere Qui Barre and 25 years ago the couple moved to Morinville and took over the Imperial Oil agency from Ernest Houle. Eight children were born and all were educated in Morinville. During these many years Mr. Gibeault always found the time to help with community work.

He was the first Grand Knight of Morinville St-Unne Knights of Columbus Council No. 5010 and promoted K.C. sponsorship of the boy scout, cubs, guides and brownie packs in Morinville. He is a charter member of the Morinville Lion's Club, and an active supporter of the Morinville Sports Association. Mr. Gibeault served as member of the Morinville town council from 1950 until 1958. He is an active member of the Morinville Board of Trade, and the Frontier

Daze committee. As a popular master of ceremonies he is in demand throughout the entire district. Today

Pete is still busy but saves some time for special little people -- his four grandchildren.

Well-known and popular Peter Gibeault of Morinville, an active community worker over many years, was named "Citizen of the Year" on Sunday and is displaying the Morinville Lions Club trophy, which accompanies the honor.

Calahoo Women Enjoy City Tour

By Liz McLeod

June 15 was a memorable day for all the members of Calahoo Women's Institute. Accompanied by Harold Christen, Vance Berry, Henry Bergstreiser and Roy Schmermund who used their vehicles the group made their annual tour of Edmonton. Before leaving from the MM Food Store, owner Walter Victor asked the ladies to see his garden and flowers back of the store. What a magnificent sight to see the flowers, shrubs and each lady was given a stem of lily of the valley to wear.

The first stop was at the Centennial Library where a very pleasant Mr. G Smythe was guide. This is a well used building since thousands come every day and its childrens' library is such an attractive area with the birds, animals and reptiles.

The children's theatre is a busy place since appointments have to be booked six months ahead. The 250 seat theatre for adults is well used and open to anyone wishing to go. When the seats are filled the doors are shut for that performance. There is no charge except when the performers charge, in which case they are charged rent also, but this is small.

An amazing sight was a duck pond with a fountain in the centre, located in a rugged room panelled with Scottish weaving. The pair of domestic tame ducks don't even come over the low sides or try at any time to hop out of their home. The pond is cleaned weekly and Mr. Smythe says the ducks bite.

This wonderful building took five years to plan and millions of dollars to build and is a very worthwhile place to visit.

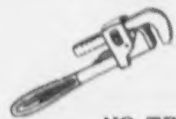

For noon luncheon the group of 19 (there were two visitors) went to the Hofbrauhaus where a table was reserved.

Second point of interest was the tropical greenhouse gardens on the Legislative grounds. A congenial guide showed the women oranges ripening on the vine, a lemon on a tree and several coffee trees. The flowers were beautiful and when asked how they have such lovely begonia's, the guide said the soil has the answer. There should be three parts soil, one part manure, one part sand, one part peat moss and one part super phosphate. After admiring the beautiful garden and attractive layout, the group visited the Provincial Archives and Museum where petite young Rosemary Kwasney guided them through a truly interesting experience of seeing all the animals native to our country as well as Indian's dress and examples of early machinery and tools.

After a stop off for lunch at the Grille on Centennial Mall the women returned home with the feeling they'd had a truly wonderful day.

Gehring-Crozier vows exchanged

Our Lady of Loretta Chapel was the scene of a pretty June wedding when Fr. Stack united in marriage, Judith Margaret Crozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Crozier of Namao and Stanley James Gehring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gehring of Medicine Hat in a double ring ceremony.

The bride entering the church with her father looked radiant in a floor length gown of Lagoda crepe with flowing train. The high neckline, wrist length sleeves, dress front and skirt were trimmed with lace with a satin ribbon and bow at her waistline. Her bouffant illusion net veil was held in place by a sequined tiara.

She carried a bouquet of cascade yellow roses.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Marilyn Arndt, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were Miss Rita McDonnell, cousin of the bride and Miss Diane Healey of Yellowknife.

The attendants wore identically styled gowns of mauve peau-d'elegance with white sequined trim at the empire waists. They carried bouquets of yellow daisies with matching daisies in their hair.

The best men were John O'Reilly of Medicine Hat, Gordon Frank, brother-in-law of the groom and John Drake of Yellowknife.

Ushers were Tom and Bob Crozier, brothers of the bride.

Soloists at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Nelson of Namao, accompanied by Miss Nancy Crawford at the organ.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Crozier wore a yellow fortrel ensemble with white accessories with a corsage of white roses.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Gehring wore a two-piece navy suit with white accessories complimented by a corsage of red roses.

The bride and groom were honored at a reception and dance held at the Lauderdale Community Hall.

Master of ceremonies was Gary McDonnell, cousin of the bride, and the toastmaster was Reg Crozier, uncle of the bride.

Miss Janice Crozier was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were from Medicine Hat, Lethbridge, Calgary and Yellowknife.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a white pant suit with red accessories.

After a short trip to Medicine Hat the happy couple will reside in Yellowknife.

Gwen Margaret Clapp, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clapp of Namas, became the bride of Jon Wardley Koch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Koch of Innisfail in an afternoon ceremony conducted by Rev. Dr. E. Miller of Namas United Church, June 13. Mr. Ron Nelson sang the Lord's Prayer and the Wedding Prayer accompanied by organist Mrs. Dick Hansen.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a full length white sleeveless gown styled with a high-waisted lace bodice and stand-up lace collar. Her matching long-sleeved coat fitted with long train and trimmed with lace appliques was crowned by a shoulder length bouffant veil gathered to an oval of white roses, tear drop crystals and pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The bride was attended by her three sisters, Mrs. Keith Reed, matron of honor and Norma and Lois Clapp as bridesmaids. They wore identical Christian Dior original floor length long-sleeved gowns of pink sparkle crepe, with high waisted bodices trimmed with satin inserts and covered buttons. Each attendant, with stephanotis blooms tucked in her dark hair, carried a spray of white gladioli. A basket of white lilies and cream roses stood at the front of the church.

Mr. Ross Flohr, John Lord and Doug Eaton were best men and guests were ushered into the church by Ron Gloecker and Keith Reed, brother-in-law of the bride.

Mrs. Clapp wore a pink shantung coat and dress ensemble with contrasting black net hat while Mrs. Koch chose a co-ordinated turquoise dress and hat. Both mothers wore cream roses encorsage.

Marvin Roberts was master of ceremonies at reception and dance held at the Club Embassy where a three layered pink and white cake was trimmed with pink sweetheart roses and green smilax. The bride's uncle, Herb Craig proposed a toast to the bride and a congratulatory telegram was received from Rick Acres of Victoria.

Out of town relatives attending the wedding were Mrs. Jakob Koch of Calgary, grandmother of the groom; Mrs. Duncan Manuel, sister of the groom, her husband and son; Meg Koch of Brooks, Mrs. Lydia Thauberger of Winnipeg, Mr. and Mrs. Weiss of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Wardley and daughter of Saskatoon, Mrs. Elsie Revitt of Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Revitt, Mr. and Mrs. Dyson Revitt and Mr. Don Revitt.

The bride's going away outfit was a long-sleeved print dress with a peach sleeveless coat and white orchid corsage. After a trip to the mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Koch will reside in Edmonton.

Irene DeLuca leaves guides

The Third St. Albert Company is very sad to be losing their captain, Miss Irene DeLuca. Miss DeLuca is leaving St. Albert to go on an extended European trip. Her family is leaving for a year's stay in Leithbridge and expect to return to St. Albert during the summer of 1971.

Miss DeLuca has been associated with the Third Company for the past four years. Three of these were spent as a lieutenant and, since last fall, as the captain of the company, replacing Miss Pauline Vaugouls who was appointed the commissioner of the newly-formed Sturgeon district. Miss DeLuca was assisted by Mrs. Vonda McMahon and Miss E. Dian-ocky and several junior leaders.

The Third Company extended their very best wishes to Miss DeLuca for a well-deserved holiday and thank her most sincerely for all her many contributions and efforts to all the members of the company.

During a gold-cord presentation ceremony for Denise Maurice, Thursday, Miss DeLuca was thanked by District Commissioner Pauline Vaugouls for her contribution to guiding in St. Albert. Presentation of a corsage and gift was made by Mrs. H. O'Kall and Mrs. J. Byrne on behalf of the Catholic Women's League of St. Albert.

Sincere expression of sympathy from the people of the entire Municipal District of Sturgeon are extended to Mrs. Germain Borle of St. Albert and her six children on the tragic accidental death of her husband, Germain Borle, 49, last Friday evening - June 26, on a country road north-east of Spruce Grove. Besides his family, he leaves his elderly father Mr. Prudent Borle, and 10 brothers and sisters in the district. Funeral services were held last Tuesday morning in St. Albert and interment followed in the local church cemetery.

The first hailstorm of the season was reported last Saturday morning south and east of Morinville. Damage to the rapeseed crops in particular was considered severe in some localities. Damage reports were not able to be confirmed by the district agriculturist's office in Morinville. Reliable reports told of very severe damage from Morinville west to Stony Plain where some 100 per cent losses were reported. Hailstones the size of golf balls broke windows, and car windshields and pounded crops and gardens to a pulp.

They walked for sports

The recent walkathon held in Bon Accord area on June 6, to raise money for sports equipment, proved to be a very successful event.

Ninety-eight people turned out to start the 25-mile hike. These people walked a grand total of over 1,600 miles. Thirty-seven of the starters finished the 25-miles.

The day was very warm, and the roads extremely rough but these determined people didn't give up.

The youngest walker to finish was Victor Uchacz and the oldest Mike Malanchen.

A big thank you goes out to all the people involved; the radio car club, the helpers who were at the checkpoints, those who helped with the weiner roast and an extra big thank you to those who sponsored the walkers.

There were eight checkpoints along the way. They

Inglewood couple supports blind council

For John and Myrtle Gray of 11631 - 127 Street, Edmonton, work with the Canadian Council of the Blind has practically become a way of life.

Residents of Inglewood since 1950, the Grays became interested in CCB -- an organization of clubs of blind persons -- in 1957, when Mr. Gray lost his sight because of retina deterioration.

During the previous two years, he had undergone a number of operations in an attempt to save his sight. While in Toronto for a final operation, he was involved in a car accident and, in his words, "that finished it."

John Gray had been employed by the CNR and worked at the Calder Shops. Although both Mr. and Mrs. Gray appear to have adjusted very well to his blindness and the drastic changes it made in their way of life, he admits that there was a period at first when "I just didn't know what I was going to do."

Through the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, Mr. Gray was introduced to CCB, "the voice of the organized blind" in Canada. Aim of the 82 clubs and 4,500 members across Canada is to promote the well being of the blind through higher education, profitable employment and social association. A closer relationship between the blind and sighted is also encouraged.

The Canadian Council of the Blind works with the CNIB in sponsoring the annual "White Cane Week" -- an educational program designed to inform the public of the needs and capabilities of sightless Canadians.

The Edmonton club of CCB has approximately 100 members. Friends and relatives of registered blind people may join as associate members.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Gray are deeply involved in the club's activities. Mr. Gray has served on the executive of the local club and the division council. He has worked on public relations for the Alberta Division of the council, in particular on White Cane Week. He has attended conferences in various parts of Canada and expresses disappointment that doctor's orders will keep him from this year's national convention in St. John's.

Mrs. Gray is treasurer and assistant secretary of the Edmonton club. There's never a shortage of projects on the go, but she confesses that her "pet" is the Christmas party staged annually for blind children and for children of the blind.

Sponsored by the West Edmonton Lions Club, the party is described by Mrs. Gray as something very special. Blind children decorate their own tree and last year arrangements were made for a live deer from the zoo to attend the party. It was wonderful to see the children touching Rudolph to "see" what he looked like, reports Mrs. Gray. The deer was such a hit, she said, that those in charge are already wondering what they'll do for an encore this Christmas.

In 1968, Mrs. Gray was the recipient of the IODE's Faith Clifton Memorial Award Citation for her work in various CNIB and CCB projects.

Activities for the blind arranged by the local club include four banquets or dinners a year -- in September and June and on Thanksgiving and the 24th of May. Bowling -- of the alley, table and carpet varieties -- cribbage, whist drives, bingo and dances are also arranged.

Bingo is played on special cards "that look like little muffin tins, with raised numbers in the bottom of each cup." A corresponding card for the sighted helper is provided.

In addition to the Lions, members of the IODE and the Ladies Auxiliary to the CNIB volunteer time and effort to CCB programs.

Public interest in the club's activities is generally good, according to Mrs. Gray but there is a particular demand for people interested in driving members to the various meetings and functions. The club plans to zone its membership to make transportation easier to arrange. Volunteers who feel they could spare even one afternoon or evening a month to drive members, would be welcome, said Mrs. Gray.

"Like everywhere else, we're having a time getting young people into the club," she said. One of the reasons for this, the Grays believe, is that younger blind people stand a much better chance of mixing more with the sighted world than they did 20 or 30 years ago.

"With all the new programs being developed, they stand a 100 per cent better chance of leading a normal life now" said Mr. Gray.

Educational opportunities for sightless people have improved immensely. As blind children reach grade 10, they are now being put into sighted classes and, in Edmonton, the CNIB in conjunction with the department of education, has an itinerant teacher who goes from school to school. Braille books and tape recordings are used. The CNIB is presently training women to produce braille books, said Mrs. Gray.

Two fields where blind people are finding employment are as computer programmers and dark room technicians. Nearly every hospital in Edmonton has a dark room technician who is a blind person, said Mr. Gray. Grande Prairie will be hiring one within the next few weeks. The dark room technician's course is taught at NAIT while the majority of blind computer programmers take their training in Winnipeg.

While the CNIB provides the majority of funds to finance the club, the members' one fund-raising project during the year is a bazaar. The club has donated chairs to the CNIB auditorium and is now working on providing tables.

In an effort to increase membership and improve programs, the council plans a leadership training seminar to interest people in taking over leadership of the club.

In her association with blind people through the council, Mrs. Gray has found that the vast majority are extremely well-adjusted. She tells of an 82-year-old blind lady who has recently had a leg amputated. In hospital to be fitted for an artificial limb, "she had me writing some letters and there wasn't a word of complaint in them," said Mrs. Gray.

Mr. Gray counts himself lucky that he had always been used to working with his hands before he lost his sight. Displaying some of the basketry work that he turns out -- mostly as a hobby and for gifts -- he explained that "all I had to do was learn to keep my fingers away from the saw." He saws and fits the mahogany plywood that he uses in items such as laundry hampers.

"I drill the holes for screws -- just like Rosie the Riveter," says Mrs. Gray.

The couple's 18-year-old son uses the electric jigsaw to produce the oval bases for baskets. Outside of the shell-acing and varnishing the remainder of the work is handled by Mr. Gray.

While the Grays feel that programs for the blind have improved tremendously over the past several years, they both express concern for the "in-between" group -- people with partial sight. Because so many of them are not registered with the CNIB they are not known to the people who might be in a position to help.

Mrs. Gray looked forward to a one-day conference sponsored by the newly-formed Alberta Association for Visually Impaired Children which she planned to attend Saturday. Slated to speak on the problem of providing educational facilities for blind and visually impaired children, were representatives of the department of education and the Edmonton public school board.

Whatever new programs might evolve from this and other conferences of this nature, it's a safe bet they'll have active support from John and Myrtle Gray.

Sr. Citizens trounce Lions at card party

When a proposed trip to Morinville's Frontier Daze for members of the St. Albert Senior Citizens Club had to be cancelled Sunday because of poor weather, plans were promptly changed and 12 Lions and Lady Lions hosted the group of 44 club members at a whist drive in the Community Hall.

Lion Elmer Harrison reports that the Lions and Lady Lions were thoroughly trounced by the senior citizens in what he described as a "wild, swinging afternoon of whist" -- but everyone was having so much fun that the hosts were able to swallow their defeat gracefully.

And that apparently wasn't all that was swallowed. Elmer reports that two huge layer cakes disappeared during the coffee hour.

Members of the Breakfast Lions and Lady Lions clubs taking part in the afternoon's activities were: Irene Demers, Lucy Huberdeau, Florence Burton, Dorothy Harrison, Joyce Meurin, Pat Hauptman, John Huberdeau, "Doc" Cuts, Adam Hauptman, Charles Meurin, Elmer Harrison and Marcel Demers.

The Breakfast Lions Club sponsors the senior citizens program in St. Albert and works closely with the executive of the club in planning outings. Coming up in the near future are trips to Elk Island Park, the Alberta Game Farm and to the Edmonton Senior Citizens Recreation Centre.

Executive members of the Senior Citizens Club are: president, Mrs. Susie Michelot; vice-president Mrs. Marguerite Akins and secretary, Mrs. Freda Wel-ler.

Membership in the club is approximately 55 and meetings are held every second-Thursday at 2 p.m. in the Community Hall.

Anyone interested in joining the Senior Citizens Club is asked to contact the president, Mrs. Michelot, at 599-6115.

Paddling down the river -- or is it pedalling -- on a Friday afternoon is Kelly Flynn of 83 Grandora, who combined a raft, a bicycle and a lot of imagination to come up with this unique paddle wheeler. Kelly's friend, Neil Sherma, helped him with the project and the boys find it's just the thing for navigating the Sturgeon River.

Soccer Stars win easily

St. Albert Midget All Star soccer team clobbered Meadowlark 10 - 0 with Willie Grueber hitting the twine five times and two goal performances from Doug Ferguson and Dave Tailby. Wayne Morgan rounded out the scoring in the game played last Thursday at Salisbury soccer pitch.

Coach John Dalgety's squad played Athlone last Monday in Edmonton and came up with a 2-2 tie in a very rugged game with Doug Ferguson scoring the tie goal about half way through the last half. Jim Winters scored St. Albert's first goal.

Leo club's aim - fun and funds

Members of the St. Albert Leo Club, a young people's service club sponsored by the St. Albert Lions Club, have just completed their first money-making undertaking -- the raffling of a combination TV-radio-record player.

Winners Ken and Dot Fehr had their ticket drawn on Saturday by Lions Past President, Rock Holman.

Spokesman for the group, Doug Watkins, says that they didn't make quite as much money as they had hoped -- still the club feels pretty proud of the results of their first raffle. A party held shortly after formation of the club four months ago netted $65 so proceeds from the raffle will be added to that total until the group decides on a project to spend the money on. One possibility being considered is improvements to Lions Park.

The Leo Club is open to young people from ages 15 to 21 and is modelled on the pattern of Lions Clubs.

Both service work and social activities are included in the program.

The following are on the executive of the club: president, Margaret Ripley; vice-president, Eugene Blais; treasurer, Ray Huberdeau; secretary, Alice Marie Sanche.
